Business Changes.

Messrs. E. E. Hoyt and W. H. Osborn h ave formed a co-partnership, and will eccupy the store of E. E. Hoyt & Co. Mr. Osborn has been in this establishment, as clerk, for some years, is well known to be an active, gentlemanly, business man, and will be an addition to the be fore popular and reliable firm. One feature to be now inaugurated, is that the business will be done in the future, entirely upon the ready pay system. The system of long credits invariably works evil to both buyer and seller, and in thi sestablishment it will be henceforth superseded by that of no credit.

Mr. J. E. Gimperling, recently connected with the Little Minmi Railroad, has been appointed assistant to Colonel Gill, and other Produce.

Warren, O., April 10, 1861. The appointment will give universal satisfaction, as he is a thorough railroad man.

Mr. Gimperling is a native of Northern Ohio, and is one of the best railroad men GONTINENTAL ...
